PREAMBLE

We, baptized members of the Church of Christ, responding in faith to the call of the Holy Spirit through the Gospel, desiring to unite together to preach the Word, administer the sacraments, and carry out God's mission, do hereby adopt this constitution and solemnly pledge ourselves to be governed by its provisions. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 1. NAME AND INCORPORATION

- C1.01. The name of this congregation shall be Kenwood Lutheran Community Church of Duluth, Minnesota.
- C1.02. For the purpose of this constitution and the accompanying bylaws, the congregation of Kenwood Lutheran Community Church is hereinafter designated as "this congregation."
- C1.03. This congregation shall be incorporated under the laws of the State of Minnesota.

Chapter 2. CONFESSION OF FAITH

- C2.01. This congregation confesses the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- C2.02. This congregation confesses Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe.
 - a. Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate, through whom everything was made and through whose life, death, and resurrection God fashions a new creation.
 - b. The proclamation of God's message to us as both law and Gospel is the Word of God, revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.
 - c. The canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written Word of God. Inspired by God's Spirit speaking through their authors, they record and announce God's revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God's Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.
- C2.03. This congregation accepts the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God and the authoritative source and norm of its proclamation, faith, and life.
- C2.04. This congregation accepts the Apostles', Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds as true declarations of the faith of this congregation.
- C2.05. This congregation accepts the Unaltered Augsburg Confession as a true witness to the Gospel, acknowledging as one with it in faith and doctrine all churches that likewise accept the teachings of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession.
- C2.06. This congregation accepts the other confessional writings in the Book of Concord, namely, the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalcald Articles and the Treatise, the Small Catechism, the Large Catechism, and the Formula of Concord, as further valid interpretations of the faith of the church.

C2.07. This congregation confesses the Gospel, recorded in the Holy Scriptures and confessed in the ecumenical creeds and Lutheran confessional writings, as the power of God to create and sustain the church for God's mission in the world.

Chapter 3. NATURE OF THE CHURCH

C3.01. All power in the Church belongs to our Lord Jesus Christ, its head. All actions of this congregation are to be carried out under his rule and authority.

C3.02. The Church exists both as an inclusive fellowship and as local congregations gathered for worship and Christian service. Congregations find their fulfillment in the universal community of the church, and the universal Church exists in and through congregations. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, therefore, derives its character and powers both from the sanction and representation of its congregations and from its inherent nature as an expression of the broader fellowship of the faithful. In length, it acknowledges itself to be in the historic continuity of the communion of saints; in breadth, it expresses the fellowship of believers and congregations in our day.

NOTES

These notes are not a part of the Constitution of Kenwood Lutheran Church. They are provided as an informative record of changes to the constitution. The official record of changes is to be found in the minutes of the congregational meetings at which the changes were enacted and ratified.

1. The foregoing constitution is a revision of the Constitution of Kenwood Lutheran Church which was based on the model constitution of the American Lutheran Church. (Copies of that constitution are kept on file in the pastor's office.) The revision was based on the ELCA Model Constitution for Congregations and was approved at Kenwood Lutheran Church's Annual meeting on 1/30/97 (which followed the action of the Northeastern Minnesota Synod explained in [2.] below). It was approved again without amendment at Kenwood Lutheran Church's Annual meeting on 1/25/98.
2. The foregoing constitution retains unamended provisions of the Constitution of Kenwood Lutheran Church which are from the model constitution for congregations of the American Lutheran Church relating to church affiliation and property ownership. Those provisions, all found on page 7, are C6.05, C7.01, C7.02, C7.03, with the unamended text noted in italics. Special permission for retaining said provisions was obtained by action of the ELCA Northeastern Minnesota Synod Council on December 5, 1997. A copy of the letter from the Secretary of the Northeastern Minnesota Synod is found on page 17.

Dear Pastor Jenson,

It was recently brought to my attention that your congregation has requested written notification of action taken by the Synod Council regarding changes you have made to the congregation's constitution.

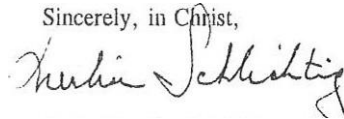

The action you refer to was taken at the December 5, 1997, meeting of the Council, when it met at Elim Lutheran Church in Duluth. The minutes record the following:

VOTED

SC97.12.08. to approve the request of Kenwood Lutheran Church to retain provisions C.6.05, C. 7.01, C. 7.02, and C. 7.03 from their pre-ELCA constitution in their newly-revised constitution.

I hope this is the information you need.

Sincerely, in Christ,

Pastor Merlin Schlichting, Secretary
Northeastern Minnesota Synod ELCA
